365 GOSPEL-CENTERED DEVOTIONALS FOR THE WHOLE YEAR

"I have read many good devotional books over the years, but never have I experienced anything quite like New Morning Mercies by Paul David Tripp. Never has a devotional impacted my life in a day-to-day manner such as this one has, enabling me to understand so much more about the depths of God's grace and His love for me, and my on-going need for His sanctifying grace in my life. It has caused me to smile to weep and, too frequently for my own comfort, to feel the pain of deep conviction when the Lord has made me aware of areas of my life in which I am not being completely obedient and submissive to His will. I believe there is more to glean than I could retain through one read through, so I plan to read through this devotional again in 2019. I hope you will consider joining me. And if you do, prepare to be blessed."
