Disrupting Routine

By Derrick Bremer

What is Scripture? Who is the Messiah? How can I experience Confession? Up to this point, we've asked each of these questions through our study of the book of Psalms. These are exciting questions. They are foundational and lead us into a deeper understanding of how to experience the Bible overall and grow deeper in our relationship to our Lord. Getting the right perspective on what the Bible informs our ability to relish each word that it contains. Dropping into the perspective of the Old Testament Psalmists who looked forward to rescuing from their savior reminds us as Christians of the reality of redemption provided to us through God's grace—prioritizing healthy confession prunes a healthy and fruit-producing relationship with Christ.

However, as we've explored each of these questions, I have been anticipating the week that we would finally get to talk about the Psalms that...
