WELCOME, STUART ESTES! ABS MINISTRY TEAM LEADER

We are excited to welcome to our services today the new Ministry Team Leader at the UA Association of Baptist Students—Stuart Estes.

Many of you may already know Stuart from church camp or other local association activities. He and his wife (Hanna) have been leading the student ministry at Round Mountain Baptist Church in Fayetteville for several years now. They are both recent graduates of the University of Arkansas. Stuart is currently working for Walmart in their corporate headquarters, and Hanna serves as a professor at the university. Stuart's goal is to be able to serve full-time in the ministry; but he needs our help in order to make that happen!

Stuart will be speaking in both services today. He'll be sharing more about his vision and ministry plans for the ABS ministry.

He will also be challenging us to consider supporting this ministry both with our prayers and our finances. I hope that you will prayerfully consider becoming a partner in this ministry to help reach the 27,000 students on campus that are from all over the world.

During this difficult time, we want to encourage you to continue giving your tithes and your offerings. God promises to provide for all our needs when we put Him first in our finances!

Also, please let us know if you have been laid off or had your hours reduced as a result of the Coronavirus Pandemic. It is in times like these that we need to help one another as fellow church members!
