

Bible Reading: Philippians 3:20-21

Devotional Thought:

Sometimes we just need to be reminded that this world is not our home.

When troubles come, when disaster strikes, and we feel the heartache of a broken, sin-filled world, we need to remember this world is not our home.

When we feel out of place, it's okay.

We have the hope of heaven in our hearts; that a better tomorrow is coming.

For now we are in the waiting, but it won't last forever.

The best is yet to come.

Bible Reading: Philippians 3:1-21

Questions for Reflection:

What does it mean to rejoice in the Lord?
Why is this important?

What is the danger of having "confidence in the flesh"?

Paul says that he is willing to count everything as loss compared to knowing Christ. How can we have this kind of mindset today?

What goal are we to press forward towards?

Explain what it means to have our citizenship in heaven. How should this impact the way we live? How should this impact what we teach the next generation?
