GOOD MORNING!

Good Morning Church Family, and welcome to our guests. We're so glad to have you here today. Lead Pastor Wade and his family are out of town. Please pray for their safe travels, and that they have a fantastic time.

This week as I was studying and prepping for the sermon today, my prayer and meditation time kept bringing me back to the song "In the Secret" (the Shane and Shane version). It is not a theological masterpiece, nor is the music complicated. However, in the song's simplicity, there were some beautifully convicting questions that my mind kept pouring over. Do I make it a priority to go to quiet places for Him? Do I really want to know God better? Do I wait on Him?

In Luke 8, there was a woman who bled constantly and no physician could heal her. She had faith that if she could just touch Jesus' garment she would be healed. Do we have that kind of faith? In Luke 2, Simeon, a righteous and devout man, knew that when he looked upon Jesus he had seen Salvation. Do we desire to see His face?

When you sing this song today, and any time afterwards, mean the words that you want to know Him more. Have faith that Jesus is the source of our salvation from all afflictions, physical and spiritual.

Have a blessed week.
