WHERE HAS THE SUMMER GONE?

It is hard to believe that public school is starting tomorrow! It seems like only a few days ago that we were getting ready for our Fourth of July celebration. Now, here we are, six weeks later, the summer vacation is over and it is time to get back to our routines and our new normal.

I want to thank all of you for your prayers while Joanna and I were sick. The week of July 11, both Joanna and I were incapacitated by the Coronavirus. I was down for nineteen days and she for seventeen. I am so thankful that we did not have to be admitted into the hospital as a result; although I did have to go in for a day to receive an antibody infusion.

I know that a great number of you also endured a bout with Covid-19. It is my prayer that you are healing well and that there will be minimal long-term effects on your health.

As our children and teachers return to in-person instruction this week, please keep them in your prayers. There are a lot of difficult decisions being made as a result of the new spike in Coronavirus cases.

It seems that no matter what the decision, there is someone who disagrees. Be in prayer for all our community and school leaders as they seek to do what is best for everyone!
