COLLIDE STUDENT CONFERENCE—OCTOBER 23

This Saturday, Temple Baptist Church Student Ministry will be attending Collide Student Conference hosted by the First Baptist Church of Mena. This conference is sponsored by the Ouachita Baptist Association and was launched by my good friend, Kevin Williams who is the Associate Pastor of Youth and Children at FBC Mena and son of former BMA Missionary, Ricky Williams.

Kevin started this conference because he has a passion for students to know and understand Truth. He saw how easy it is for students to get swept away with the beliefs of today's culture and never challenge the status quo and he wanted to change that. This conference was created to equip students from middle school to high school with the knowledge to boldly live out their faith and to confidently engage the world around them. With three main sessions and various breakout sessions, this day will be packed with training to help students know how to respond when their beliefs "collide" with those around them.

This is an exciting opportunity and we definitely want your student involved! The van leaves Saturday at 6:30am so see Pastor David to sign up your student today! Lunch will be provided but students will need money for dinner and we will return by 9:00pm.

October 31st is Lifeword Sunday here at Temple Rogers! The day will include a special offering for this worldwide media ministry, a church wide fellowship lunch and then the Walk for the World 5K. We want to encourage you to plan toward supporting this ministry!
