CELEBRATING THE LORD'S SUPPER

At 6:00 this evening, our church will set aside a time to commemorate the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord and Savior—Jesus Christ! This is a special time when the members of our church come together to observe the Lord's Supper. I want to encourage you to join us for this solemn time of worship.

If you are not yet a member of the church, you are welcome to come and observe, but the ordinance of the Lord's Supper is specifically for those who have covenanted together as a part of this local body of believers.

GOD BREAKS THE SILENCE—DEVOTIONAL

If you missed it last Sunday night, we gave you a new resource for your holiday season—a twenty-five day, advent devotional guides. These books, written by Pastor David McEuen, have been designed to guide you (and your family) through the series of events surrounding the birth of our Savior. It had been over 400 years since God had spoken through one of His prophets. This booklet will be your guide through these events highlighting the fulfillment of prophecy along the way! Be sure to pick up a copy for yourself—and pick up extra copies to give to friends, family and neighbors. This little booklet will make a great addition to any gift!
