Happy New Year! I hope that your New Year's celebrations were filled with family, friends and joy to share! We are so glad that you have made church attendance a priority on this first Sunday of 2022! It is our hope that God will be your priority every day of this new year!

join us each day for one (or both) of these times of prayer!

We will gather together every morning and evening at 5:30 for a thirty minute time of prayer. Many of you joined us last year for a week of prayer. It was a such a blessing to spend this time praying

In an effort to focus on God and His omnipotent power to sustain us, we will be focusing our attention this week on extended times of prayer together as a church family. We want to invite you to for our church, her mission, the lost and our impact on the community of Rogers.

Will you commit to being a part of this special time of prayer? What better way is there to start off the New Year?

Deacon of the Month for January Lonnie Townzen
