Jesus said, "I must

PROCLAIM THE GOOD NEWS

of the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because that is why I was sent."

BROKEN

2022 WORLD MISSIONS DAY

“When He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd.” (Matthew 9:36)

BROKEN HEART FOR A BROKEN WORLD

Pandemics – lockdowns - political divide – poverty – religious oppression - persecution. We live in a BROKEN world. In a broken world, Jesus was burdened for broken people:

- The impoverished and oppressed.
- The helpless and hopeless.
- The lost and weary and scattered.

Each day, 175,000 people die. Each year 60 million broken and lost people die. Jesus gave his life for broken people. And He gave the same mission to the church: take the healing message of Jesus Christ to the nations. We too must be burdened for people.

- Burdened enough to give.
- Burdened enough to go.
- The urgency has never been greater!

The vision of the BMAA Missions Department is to double the number of missionaries in 10 years. This World Missions Day, help us take the healing message of Jesus Christ to a hurting and broken world. They need our help!

- Pray God will raise up laborers to go to new countries and people groups.
- Pray for our family of missionaries in over 65 countries around the world.
- Give to the JERRY KIDD MISSIONS OFFERING.
