BROKEN HEART FOR A BROKEN WORLD

I am looking forward to the chance to give toward the Jerry Kidd Missions Offering in just a few weeks, but I'm also really excited about helping in a tangible way right here in our neighborhood! We don't have to go far to find brokenness.

This month, our church family has rallied together in an attempt to be a blessing to some of our neighbors. In case you missed it, we are collecting items to be donated to Westside Elementary School this week.

I want to thank you for your positive response and generosity in this effort. I think we can say that our “tub runneth over!” If you still plan to give toward this effort, please let the office know when you plan to drop off your donation.

And please... please remember to pray for our schools, teachers, parents and administrators during this trying time!
