QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

Read Luke 8:40-48. Other than the annoyance of it, what were the implications of continually having a “discharge of blood”? (cf. 8:43)

How did this affect her socially and religiously? (cf. Leviticus 15:19-31)

What were some of the things that she would be disqualified from considering that she was socially and ceremonially unclean?

Why did Jesus ask: “Who touched me?” Was He unable to discern this?

What was His purpose in asking this question this way? (cf. 8:47)

Why would she be hesitant to admit that she touched Jesus? By asking His question in verse 45, what did Jesus enable this woman to do? Why is that important?

What did she actually do to be healed from this discharge? What is the source of her healing? (cf. 8:48)

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

Read Luke 8:40-56. What is the significance of the fact that Jairus was the “ruler of the synagogue”? What did he request of Jesus? What does this tell us about his faith/belief in Jesus?

Jesus journey to Jairus’ house was interrupted by the woman with the discharge of blood. What new development occurred while He was still on His way? (cf. 8:49)

How did Jesus respond to the news of her death? How would you react if Jesus said this to you about your daughter who had just died?

What did Jesus do to restore life to this child? Why do you think it was necessary for the child to eat?

Why did Jesus instruct the parents to tell no one what had happened?
