Today is a very special day as we set aside time to honor fathers, grandfathers, great-grandfathers, step-fathers, father in-laws, and all those who have been like a father when we needed one. THANK YOU and Happy Father's day!

I'm especially thankful for my Dad and the times he invested in me over the years. Whether it was teaching me about Christ on road trips or taking my calls when I needed advice, his lessons have been invaluable and I still rely on them today.

Dads, you and I have the tremendous blessing and responsibility of pointing our children to Jesus and representing the Father's love, authority, and heart to them. If you're like me, some days you feel like you do this pretty well but others days...maybe not so much.

Wherever you find yourself today, take heart knowing that God's grace is sufficient and He is continually redeeming the time and equipping you to bring up your children in the discipline and instruction of the Lord as you commit your way to Him. (Eph. 6:4)
