ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING

This afternoon, at 4:00 PM, our church family will come together to conduct our annual business meeting. It is my sincere desire that all church members will join in this self-governing process.

Unlike many other denominations, our church is completely autonomous. That means that we decide for ourselves what our ministry priorities will be. Approving the annual budget is a big part of what that looks like.

It's been said that if you want to find out what is important to someone, you should look at their calendar and their
