STILL ACCEPTING RECOMMENDATIONS FOR DEACONS

I want to thank each one of you who have taken the time to share your recommendations to us for who you think is a suitable person to serve our church as a deacon.

We have heard from many of you, but there is still time for you to make your recommendations to either one of the pastors or current deacons.

Deacons are called to be servants of the church. In Acts 6, the church that was in Jerusalem initiated this role when they chose "seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit and wisdom" (Acts 6:3). The Apostle Paul expounded on their qualifications in his letter to his protégé, Timothy. You can read these qualities in 1 Timothy 3:8-13.

We believe that there are men in this church who exhibit these qualifications and should be officially recognized by the church as deacons. There is a process that we will go through to do this, but that process begins with identifying those who seem to be tested and gualified.

If you have someone in mind who you believe should be considered for this role, we want to invite you to share that with one of our pastors or current deacons.

We will then begin the process of vetting those suggested and then we will present the qualified candidates to the church for ordination in the coming months. Please keep us in your prayers as we walk through this process.
