A SMALL TWEAK IN OUR SCHEDULE TODAY

We have done this before—just for fun—but today we will be flipping the order of worship in our services. If you noticed, today's message is scheduled to begin after our first congregational song. In other words, the message will come first and the song service after!

The reason we are doing this today is to accommodate Pastor Wade's schedule. As many of you know, he sings with a men's chorus called the Singing Men of Arkansas. This weekend, the Singing Men have been on tour in Central and North-east Arkansas. Pastor Wade drove back from Jonesboro last night in order to be here this morning. But the group has a concert in Beebe this afternoon and in Greenbrier this evening, so he will be leaving immediately following the message today in order to make it to Beebe in time for that concert.

One of the highlights of this tour was that Pastor Wade had the opportunity to share the gospel and offer an invitation to the inmates at Wrightsville Prison Unity on Friday evening. Please continue to pray that this music ministry will touch the hearts of those who attend.
