QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

Read Luke 13:22-30. This section contains the parable of the narrow door. What was it that motivated Jesus to share this particular parable at this particular time? (cf. 13:23)

In verse 23, Jesus was asked a question about those who would be saved. How did Jesus answer this question? To what is He referring when He speaks about the “narrow door”? (cf. John 10:8; 14:6)

According to the parable, what would keep someone (who is trying to enter) from being able to enter through the door?

What will happen to those who are unable to enter? What is this a picture of in Scripture? (cf. Matthew 8:12; 13:42, 50; 22:13; 25:30)

Read Luke 13:29-30 again. Jesus is speaking primarily to Jewish people. Who is He referring to in these verses? Why is this significant?

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

Read Luke 13:31-35. Who is Herod (cf. Luke 9:9) and why would he want to kill Jesus? (cf. Luke 3:1; 9:9)

In your opinion, why would these Pharisees warn Jesus of impending danger? How do you think it would look if He was found fleeing for His life from Herod?

How did Jesus respond to this warning? In what way did Jesus change His plans after being made aware of these threats?

Why did Jesus refer to Herod as a fox? (Consider also Nehemiah 3:3)

The header to this section of verses (Luke 13:31-35) in your Bible may refer to this as a lament. What emotion is portrayed in Jesus' words here? Why is Jesus lamenting over Jerusalem?

Verse 35 quotes from Psalm 118:26. This same verse is quoted again later in this gospel. When did the people of Jerusalem see Jesus and say these words?
