I hope that you are praying for Pastor David and family as they are on sabbatical leave. Some might ask: Why do pastors need this? How does it benefit them (and the church) in the long run? In the next several weeks, I want to share some thoughts on this issue: reasons why every pastor needs sabbatical leave.

#1—He Needs an Opportunity to Declutter His Mind

Call it whatever you wish—stress or overload—but pastors have a lot on their minds all day everyday. The job pulls them in dozens of directions all at the same time, and many things that require a pastor’s attention are not scheduled in his day planner.

One of the most difficult aspects of serving as a pastor is that you are never off-duty—you cannot walk away from the responsibilities of the pastorate, not even for an evening.

A sabbatical allows your pastor the opportunity to relax his brain from the mental stress he carries.

Will you pray for Pastor David during these next few weeks to be able to relax his brain and just focus on being a husband and father?
