

... no prophecy ever came by human will,
but men and women
moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

The fourth reason every pastor needs a time of sabbatical leave is:

#4—He Needs an Extended Opportunity to Be Fed

A pastor is always leading. He is always feeding someone, spiritually speaking. But who is feeding him?

Pastors are always encouraged to be self-feeders and minister out of the overflow, but ministry busyness can often get in the way of that.

A sabbatical gives your pastor the opportunity to feed himself and allow others to feed him as well! Since he is not leading or teaching during this time, there are no demands on him to produce. Rather, he can simply abide.

When he returns, he'll be ready and equipped to pour out again!
